

Agreement for Undergraduate and Graduate Student Exchange Program Between
Kansai University and Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University

Kansai University and Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University agree to an exchange program for undergraduate and graduate students based on a principle of reciprocity under the 'Basic Agreement on International Exchange Programs' Part 2 of Article 1.

Article I

1. Qualified students from each institution shall be considered for acceptance at the other as non-degree candidates.
2. Students participating in the Program shall continue as candidates for degrees of their home institutions and shall not be candidates for degrees from the host institution.

Article II

1. Participating students shall pursue a study plan developed in consultation with the respective home institution and which is not in conflict with the regulations of the host institution.
2. Each student shall take courses regularly offered at the host institution within practical reason, and which are subject to approvals from both the home and host institution.
3. Students participating in the Program shall be subject to the rules, regulations, and discipline of the host institution.

Article III

Both institutions shall undertake efforts to maintain reciprocity in the numbers of students exchanged and the length of their stay in each year that the exchange Agreement operates.

Article IV

Each institution shall send and accept under this Agreement up to two students in any academic year.

Article V

Duration of stay for students at both host institutions shall not exceed one year, starting normally in April or September of each academic year at both institutions.

Article VI

1. Students participating in the Program shall be selected by their home institution on the basis of academic excellence and a serious interest in study abroad.
2. Each institution agrees to supply the other with academic credentials and supporting documentation required by each institution for admission purposes as early as possible in the preceding academic year.
3. It is understood that each host institution reserves the right to reject candidates if there is no study field on which they hope to engage themselves. In such cases, additional applications may be furnished for consideration by the home institution.

Article VII

1. Each student shall pay the applicable tuition fee to the home institution and be exempted from the payment of a tuition fee to the host institution.
