

Mission and Vision

Our Mission as Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University Canakkale Ceramics Research Development and Application Center (CASEM):

- To collect and ensure usage of visual or auditory materials such as books, magazines, movies, paintings with conducting literature screening about Traditional Canakkale Ceramics.
- To collaborate with domestic and international universities, institutions, establishments and industrial establishments about the subject.
- Organize national and international activities (panels, workshops, conversations, competitions, conferences, symposiums etc.).
- To make researches about Traditional Canakkale Ceramics and publish their results.
- To collect original products of Canakkale ceramics and let them to be exhibited.
- To identify traditional ceramics forms, research new forms, establish workshops and laboratories in order to re-production and restoration with modern interpretation.

Our Vision as Canakkale Onsekiz Mart University Canakkale Ceramics Research Development and Application Center (CASEM):

- To be a leader for transferring Traditional Ceramics Art to the next generations as having sufficient knowledge and equipment about historical process of Traditional Canakkale Ceramics which has a long historical process.